CHURCHES CHANGE

REV. BEDE JOHNSON PROMOTED AND R. C. SNUDDEN SUCCEEDS HIM—REVS. SOPER AND HARTSELL RETURN

At the close of the fortieth annual conference of the Southern California Methodist conference, in San Diego, Tuesday, Bishop Edwin H. Hughes and his cabinet had completed the appointments of ministers for the coming year. The announcement of the new order was awaited with interest, and on the whole gave satisfaction. Owing to financial difficulties which have caused some churches to reduce salaries, and to the fact that several ministers who had temporarily retired returned for charges, the work of the cabinet in making appointments was accompanied with considerable difficulty.

The cabinet is made up of Dr. F. D. Mather, Pasadena; John Oliver, Fresno; Harcourt Peck, Los Angeles; Alfred Inwood, San Diego, and R. M. McCombs of the Spanish district. A Ray Moore will replace Dr. Mather this year.

At the conference resolutions were passed opposing military instructions in public schools and condemning any influence that would drag the United States into war. A message was telegraphed to President Wilson assuring him of the support of three hundred ministers of the conference in his efforts for peace.

Among the changes made is the promotion of the Rev. Bede A. Johnson of the First Methodist church, Glendale, to St. James church, Los Angeles. Mr. Johnson is succeeded in Glendale by the Rev. B. C. Snudden of Glendora.

In the Pasadena district the appointments are in part as follows: Alhambra, First, C. D. Lewis, 3 years; Azusa, F. F. Gates, 2 years; Burbank, Frederick Miller, 2 years; Casa Verdugo, Julius Soper (supply); Eagle Rock, D. H. Gillan (supply); Glendale, First, B. C. Snudden, 1 year; Glendale West, H. J. Hartsell, 2 years; Glendora, C. C. Woods, 1 year; Lamanda Park, M. W. Beckwith, 1 year; Lankershim, H. R. Salisbury, 1 year; Highland Park, C. V. Cowan, 2 years; Monrovia, J. F. Humphrey, 1 year; Ontario, First, C. H. Scott, one year; Montebello, M. S. McGee, 2 years; Pasadena, First, M. S. Hughes, 8 years; Lake Avenue, F. G. H. Stevens, 8 years; Lincoln Avenue, E. Fretz, 3 years.

F. C. HERRON WRITES OF CONDITIONS IN IMPERIAL VALLEY

El Centro, Cal., Sept. 29, 1915. The backbone of the hot weather is broken and everybody is feeling fine.

With the return of people from vacation, the farmers getting busy and the work of repairs of the earthquake damage this looks like a flourishing section. The cotton men are smiling. The cattle and hog raisers are making money. The business men feel the promise of better times in the air. Indeed the whole situation here looks very encouraging.

Mrs. Ethel Worden, formerly of Glendale, is opening a first-class hair dressing and beauty parlor in the Barbara Worth hotel. The Barbara Worth hotel is a dream of excellence. The exterior is a model of architectural beauty, while the whole interior is suggestive of splendid luxury and inviting hospitality. It is equipped with the most modern cooling system, shower baths in most rooms and from the standpoint of comfort and convenience the place is about the last word. In the decoration scheme of the hotel, which is very elaborate, many ideas and suggestions from the book by Mr. Wright have been adapted.

With their twice a week dances in the splendid ball room and other social features the Barbara Worth is sure to become the social center for this entire valley.

KEYSTONE ON THE STREET

Glendale was livened up considerably Tuesday afternoon by the Keystone Comedy Company, which staged a street car hold up on Brand boulevard to the great entertainment of those on the streets. The street car filled up with Keystone actors was pursued by an auto with the bandits. Another auto went ahead taking the picture; while behind another car filled with movie police officers hurried in pursuit. There was much expenditure of blank ammunition and a great deal of noise and shouting. The scene was graphic enough to have been real. Before staging their scene on the street the Keystone people asked permission of the trustees.

PARKERS PARAGRAPHS

PERTINENT, POLITICAL, PUNGENTLY, PLAINLY PUT.

Ever since we had a navy we never seem to have had control of it with discipline sufficient to prevent the brutality of "hazing" at our naval school at West Point, and misery approaching to torture, and brutality ending in physical maimings with near approach to murder, escaped the punishment they deserved.

By the peremptory dismissal of six, the suspension of four for a year, without pay, the lowering of grade for fifteen others by Secretary Daniels in recent cases, looks as if he would stop it.

Of the present executive of the State of Ohio a newspaper paragraph says: "Governor Willis went to the exposition as a private citizen, declining the official entourage which has marked the arrival of many state executives. He expects to visit Los Angeles before returning east."

Such extreme modesty has not always characterized visiting statesmen from Ohio, but it pleases us to note this case and give it our cordial approbation. Governor Willis will be at the fair, plant the Ohio tree and officially deport himself in such a way as to be worthy of a warm welcome to Los Angeles.

There is a lack of consistency in the attitude of the standpats, who now are making such frantic appeals to save party lines in state affairs, and the opening of "Pandora's box" would be a nosegay compared to the string of calamities that would follow if state party was cast out. The greater includes the less. These state party preservers, now howling to save state party, are the very fellows that threw Taft overboard in 1912, thus destroying national party, for Wilson's benefit.

They used to sing with more energy than technical correctness in the social revival meetings of seventy years ago—"I Cannot Tarry Here." By implication it meant the shortness of life and certainty of death, but to a Methodist minister it simply meant "move on"—one year being the limit, and "goodbye" and "how do you do" were close neighbors. By easy stages they "evolved" to three, five, and finally to no limit of years—but only "indorsed" one year at a time by the church they were serving. Hence the song, "I Cannot Tarry Here," is still in use.

The late eccentric and eloquent Dr. David Swing (himself born in Ohio) in addressing the Ohio Society of Chicago on one occasion, began his oration something on this wise, "Ohio is bounded on the north mainly by Lake Erie, on the east and south mainly by the Ohio river, and on the west in an early day by God and grass." Ohio is a great state to be born in, and they swarm out to colonize and run the world. At the Old Settlers' Picnic (for seventy years and over) at Sycamore Grove last Saturday, fully one-half were born in Ohio, and about the same number wore the G. A. R. button.

Secular newspapers, usually very careful, might be more careful in regard to the moral trend and tendency of what is dished up as news, with reportorial comment added. W. J. Bryan having a house to rent in Washington, concluded he was duly able to do it himself, whereas the press lampooned him for parsimony in not employing a real estate agent to do the business for him. Mr. Bryan's act was creditable to himself. Anyhow, Mr. Bryan is a private citizen.

The man down at the beach trying to dip the Pacific ocean dry with a teaspoon is a philosopher beside the man (or city) who thinks to regulate a city by getting a large police force and license saloons to get money to pay the police. The more saloons the more disorder, invariably so. Why not work it the other way. Do away with the saloon and discharge the police.

Aren't our officials a little tardy in waking up to the fact that a heavy per cent of our auto accidents are resultant from drunken drivers, and is it not too apparent that our officials are rather tender hearted in dealing with these? Who is safe with these at the wheel? Why should a drinking man have a license when he would not be trusted to drive a pair of mules with a load of sand.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McElroy, 712 Adams street, left Glendale Monday in their auto for San Francisco. They intend to visit several interesting centers on the road and will spend some time in the northern city at the fair with friends.

FARMING ON DESERT

PATROLMAN HOLLENBECK TELLS OF MOJAVE RIVER VALLEY TRACT DEVELOPMENT

In the heart of the desert, not far from Barstow, where many an ounce of gold has been washed out of the auriferous gravel, and where the imagination of those who do not know the desert, sees nought save a barren waste of burning sand, is situated a flourishing colony, where farming is carried on with much success. Quite a number of the people in this enterprising community come from Glendale. Among them are Mr. J. Sprinkle, Joe Woodward, Mr. Molloy, Mr. Grist and Patrolman H. W. Hollenbeck. Each of these parties has 160 acres of desert land and each is handling and treating it in his own way.

"When I got my vacation two weeks ago," said Patrolman Hollenbeck to a representative of the Glendale Evening News, "I immediately determined to set out to my farm on the desert to see how things were looking in that part of the country. I have 160 acres there and I am gradually getting it into shape. I and Mrs. Hollenbeck and Mr. C. A. Beverstock started from Glendale in a Dodge car and made the trip there and thence down to San Diego and back to Glendale without a single mishap.

"My farm is on the Mojave River valley tract and I am going in for raising raisin grapes. I have planted out 40 acres to raisin grapes and expect to have a fine crop three years from now. Mine is an experiment in dry farming. There is plenty of water on the tract. The wells are sunk to a depth of from 150 to 200 feet. All my land is fenced and the vines are looking in good shape.

"I took up this land under the desert act. The Mojave River Valley settlement is a tract of 8 by 3 1/2 miles. The colony is made up almost entirely of people from the San Fernando valley, Los Angeles and Glendale. The tract is flourishing this year. It is beautifully green with alfalfa and there are many young trees of all kinds shooting up.

"It is true that farming on the desert is sometimes confronted with severe and blasting winds, but those come seldom. They are not more frequent than the sandstorms of which one occasionally has a sample here. Bit by bit as crops grow and seed and are planted over again with seed from the same crop, the seed grows acclimated to the desert, as it were. It becomes hardy and not even a desert wind can touch it. It is so with grape vines. They gradually get hardy and bear abundantly as in the best Fresno land.

"Many of the settlers in the tract are raising cherries and apples, while as I have said the over-productive alfalfa is to be seen all around. There is life in abundance on this ancient desert spot. Some of those desert ranches are paying now.

"The tract has two schools and one church. There are stores at Hinkley, which is the Santa Fe station. The Santa Fe line runs through the tract, that is, the line from Barstow to Bakersfield. Hinkley is 10 miles west of Barstow.

"After leaving the farm our party ran down to San Diego and saw the exposition. We were greatly delighted with the fine scenery there and enjoyed the fair very much."

FORMER RESIDENT DIES

Information regarding the death of James H. Wells, a former resident of Glendale, reached the Glendale Evening News this morning in a night letter from James H. Wells, son of the deceased. Mr. Wells died suddenly at Gainesville, Georgia, Oct. 1 and was interred Oct. 4 in Tampa, Florida, where he had resided formerly for 20 years. He was born at Windsor Locks, Conn., June 6, 1843. His wife, Lillian S. Wells, his daughter Anita and his son James survive him. Mr. Wells was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and received a military funeral from his old comrades.

Coming to Glendale about ten years ago Mr. Wells bought a house on East Third street. He was vice president of the Bank of Glendale and was quite wealthy. About three years ago he went to New York and thence to Baldwin, Florida, where he purchased a ranch. Before coming to Glendale he was engaged in construction work in Tampa, Florida.

Glenn B. Porter was a visitor in Santa Anna Tuesday.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Thursday; northerly winds.

PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATIONS

That the Parent-Teacher associations and the Parent-Teacher federation have done much good is not to be denied by any fair-minded observer. The associations have brought the parents together and also brought them in contact with the teachers of their children. Teachers, parents and children are all human. Too often children and parents alike come to regard teachers as something removed from common humanity. Children, see teachers only in their hours of professional work, are apt specially to think of them as something apart from the ways of ordinary life.

On the common ground of the Parent-Teacher association parents come to know the teachers and the teachers to know them. Through this medium the children come to regard their teachers in something very different from the ordinary light. The intercommunication makes the parent feel as if the teacher were a friend and this too reacts on the pupil.

Again there is an interchange of sentiment and experience between parent and teacher which constitutes a bond whereby the child also profits. A parent can easily explain the idiosyncrasies of a child to a teacher and thus many peculiarities which may have puzzled the instructor are cleared up and both the task and the path of education made easier.

It was seen in the first meeting of the season of the Parent-Teacher association of Glendale Union High School how much good the association is capable of effecting. The suggestion which is being examined and discussed by the association that children be given an opportunity to get employment that will provide them with board and room while studying at the High School is one that will need careful study and thorough safeguarding so that while the pupils are studying on this system they may do enough work to pay for their board they be neither overworked nor harassed in their performance of work so that their chance to study be not impaired.

Another proposal for a book exchange is also a good suggestion. It will save money, which is always a consideration. There are other plans incubating for the benefit of parent, teacher and pupil that will be made known shortly and will further demonstrate the benefits of these associations.

FARMING ON THE DESERT

In another column of the Glendale Evening News will be found an account of a desert farm colony, which is interesting to Glendale because the colony is formed to a considerable extent by Glendale people and people from the immediate neighborhood of the city. Those people are doing well on their farms. One of the farms is paying now and the others will drop into the credit column before long.

It may seem a wonderful thing to hear of farms in the desert, but it must be remembered that all the lands of Southern California were once practically desert. The great Imperial valley, which is now the scene of extraordinary agricultural activity, was once considered nearly as hopeless a tract from an agricultural point of view as Death Valley itself.

Behold what miracles water can accomplish! The wilderness is made glad and the desert blossoms as the rose. Instead of the cactus comes up the apricot tree and instead of the yucca the date palm, while the whole dry land and arid plains blossom with clover and alfalfa. Prosperous and even wealthy farmers have made their fortunes out of those arid lands.

So it is on the Mojave desert. There is water everywhere on the desert not far from the surface. Water can be found at a distance of not more than 200 feet below almost any part of the Mojave desert and in some places at shallower depths. Those artesian wells running ever by windmills are gradually changing the whole aspect of those dry lands.

At Desert Springs and Cane Springs on the Mojave desert are other farms older than those in the Mojave River Valley settlement, whose farming has been successfully carried on for many years. There every kind of crop is raised and many cattle and sheep kept. At Cane Springs there is a very large natural flow of water and there acre by acre the careful farmer has been reclaiming the land. He has made a very comfortable income out of that land although it lies within a few yards of one of the soda lakes, those enormous deposits of alkali that are the remains of the old seas that once existed on what is now the desert plateau. It is wonderful what a transformation water can effect.

WHEEL OF NATIONS TURNS

Quite a great deal has been written recently of the gallantry of one Brigadier General Marchand, whose name has been so prominent in field dispatches of the French army. Marchand is attracting quite considerable attention at present on account of his exploits, in the course of one of which he recently suffered a severe wound. At the same time all the attention he is now attracting is not any more than he attracted some years ago when both he and Field-Marshal Kitchener, now head of the war department of Britain, were considerably younger than they are at present.

When France was pushing her way in the Soudan region of Africa and Kitchener had just reconquered the Soudan there came a day when a clash seemed inevitable between Britain and France over that country. Marchand had made his way into the Nile region and was apparently about to make claims on part of the country for France when Kitchener appeared on the scene, hoisted the British flag and the Egyptian flag beside it and leaving strong guards at the post left Marchand to do what he chose. Marchand chose to go home, but for a long time Fashoda, as the place was called where those two famous men met, was a sore subject in France. It is all forgotten now, which is another example of how the wheel of nations turns.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hoffman, 124 East Second street, left Saturday for a three weeks' visit to Berkeley, Oakland and San Francisco. They have many friends in the north and intend to spend some time seeing the exposition.

Mrs. Minnie W. Allison, 1461 W. Third street, along with her mother, Mrs. Howell, who were in San Francisco for some time, where they met Mrs. Allison's son and wife, recently returned to Glendale and then went on to San Diego, where they are visiting the exposition and the neighboring country.

The Rev. Bede Johnson has returned from the Southern California Methodist Episcopal conference at San Diego. Mr. Johnson will not leave for his new appointment at St. James church, Los Angeles, until the end of the week. He will be present at the prayer meeting at the First Methodist church, this evening, and will lead the devotions. The new pastor, the Rev. B. C. Snadden, will preach morning and evening Sunday.

AUTO ACCIDENT

As Mr. F. M. Gray, of Hotel Gray, was driving his Ford west on Broadway Tuesday afternoon, he turned south into Isabel street. As he did so his machine collided with another car driven by Mrs. C. W. Pickells, 1745 Morgan street, Hollywood. Mr. Gray's car was pretty badly damaged. The fender was torn from the left side and the front axle bent. The Pickell car was practically undamaged.

PIANO FOR SALE

As I already have a very fine instrument, I wish to dispose of the fine new $350 Schiller piano which I won in the Glendale Evening News contest. This is a splendid instrument of sweet tone and is new and in good condition. I will sell for cash or purchaser may make terms to suit himself.

This is the first meeting of the season and there will be many interesting matters up for discussion and arrangement. It is likely that there will be a necessity for electing some new officials; while the infusion of a spirit of co-operation among the members for the benefit of the society is desirable.

Among other business the proposed constitution and bylaws will be submitted for consideration. All members of the society and all who are interested in flowers, gardens and nature study, are cordially invited to be present.

W. C. T. U. TO MEET

The local W. C. T. U. will hold its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. A. Frank, 1464 West Second street, Friday afternoon, October 15. CHOIR TO SING

At the First Congregational church, Third and Central, the full choir will assist in the service tonight. "The Ideal Church" will be the theme of consideration. A number of matters of much importance relative to the work of the church will be considered. It is desired that the attendance be large.

VALLEY VIEW

Mrs. Laura E. Stephens of 447 Pacific avenue has returned from a week's visit to San Diego.

Mark Van Loven, wife and little Sanford spent Sunday at Ocean Park.

Samuel Webb and wife have moved into O. L. Kilborn's rear house at 1319 Lomita.

Dr. Everley and wife have moved from 1645 Oak to 1634 Oak and a Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin have moved into the house at 1645 Oak, coming from Los Angeles.

Chicken thieves were greatly in evidence in this section last Friday evening, stealing 36 from Mrs. McIlheney, 1630 Colorado, 9 from Mrs. Bessie Waltz, 1650 Colorado, 6 from Mrs. Sally Hoopes, 1664 Colorado, and 16 from Mrs. Norma Goad, 1628 Oak. Nearly all were young laying hens. So scientifically was the work done that not a squawk was heard and no one was aroused. The thieves were evidently in a spring wagon, as the tracks of such a vehicle were plainly traced.

A recent card from Mrs. Walter Werden, formerly of 1550 Hawthorne, to a Glendale friend states that she and Walter are located at El Centro for a time and that he seems better.

Mrs. Howard Nisbet of 1438 Hawthorne is enjoying an extended visit from her sister, Mrs. Rice, of Madison, New York.

The western half of the block bounded by Hawthorne, Fifth, Pacific and Columbus, is the scene of considerable building activity just now. Three new houses are nearing completion and two swell houses have been moved to the front and are being added to.

Little Jack Thume of 1633 Oak has been very ill for several days from ptomaine poisoning and twice he was thought to be dying, but yesterday he suddenly improved and has since grown rapidly better. Little Jack is the pet of the entire neighborhood and has had many devoted nurses during his illness.

Mrs. W. T. Yoder and the children have been spending several days with a sister at Seal Beach.

J. T. Westervelt and family moved Monday from 1434 Vine to 906 Damasco.

Rev. E. A. Hoskyn and wife and Rev. H. J. Hartzell have been spending several days at San Diego attending the M. E. conference.

W. E. Hammon of 1520 Colorado is taking a three months layoff from his work in Los Angeles and is hauling produce in his auto, which he has transformed into a truck, for San Fernando valley ranchers.

T. J. Flathers and wife of 218 Oak drive were away from home Sunday and during their absence their home was robbed of several articles of valuable jewelry.

Mrs. C. Stepler went to Santa Paula this morning to spend a few days with a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCurdy of Los Angeles have moved to Glendale. They have taken a house at 1425 Burchett street. Mr. McCurdy is engaged in the electric light fixtures and supply business.

Mr. and Mrs. Shilling, 1421 Hawthorne, who have been residents in Glendale for more than a year, leave this week for North Adams, Mich. Mrs. Shilling is the daughter of Mr. Fish of 1421 Hawthorne and sister of Mr. Oma Fish and Mr. Fred Fish.

Mrs. Shilling, 1421 Hawthorne, who has been a faithful teacher in the Congregational Sunday school during the time of her residence in Glendale, entertained her class of Sunday school girls the other day at her home. The girls had a splendid time with games and refreshments.

Mrs. J. E. Lyon, 319 N. Maryland avenue, has made application for membership in the Tuesday Afternoon club.

EAGLE ROCK

Central avenue has been greatly improved by regrading, rolling and oiling the past week and Valley Drive also has been put in a much better condition by a thorough rolling.

Last week Monday night the local Eastern Star lodge members delightfully entertained the Highland Park chapter. A well arranged program was rendered and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Blanche Gardiner, Eagle Rock librarian, visited the county library Tuesday, Oct. 5th, and returned the remainder of the county's books. Now all the books on the library shelves are the property of Eagle Rock city.

This week Thursday evening the Chamber of Commerce will meet to elect new officers for the year. Any one interested is invited to attend.

Frank Hammer of Los Angeles was in this city Sunday calling on relatives and friends. He was formerly a resident of Eagle Rock.

F. E. Booth of Los Angeles was in Eagle Rock Monday looking after business interests here.

Mr. Hightower of Myrtle avenue delivered a fine sermon Sunday morning at the M. E. church and in the evening Mr. Vince preached a helpful sermon. Both will take turns in occupying the pulpit until after conference when the assigned pastor will come to take charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Adams avenue left last week for their former home at Aberdeen, Washington, to look after their property there. They will be gone about a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthews and daughter, Miss Mabel, who were the house guests of Dr. and Mrs. Martin Post of Ridgeway avenue, returned to their home in Illinois last week.

A number from here attended the Presbytery meeting held last week in Los Angeles at the First church.

Qualifying examinations for the Rhodes scholarships were held Tuesday, Oct. 5, at Occidental college.

The Episcopal church on Valley Drive and Eagle avenue has been greatly improved by being painted a dark brown.

The Presbyterian church has secured Prof. Tollman of Occidental college as choir director and so promises to have some excellent music from now on. It does seem very fortunate indeed that our churches are able to secure such splendid choir directors as we now have. Miss Avery, a talented pianist and singer, directs the Congregational church choir. Mr. Congdon, for thirty years leader of a choir in a church in Chicago, has charge of the M. E. church choir, and Prof. Tollman, leader of the "Oxy" glee club, is the Presbyterian choir director.

Miss Alice Kolbe of Fairmont avenue left Monday to take up the work of training for the Japanese missionary work. All her friends wish her the best of success.

A. A. House who has been at a sanitarium in Hollywood, returned home Friday night and is much improved.

Dr. E. B. Palmer, who resides on Magnolia avenue, has given up his laboratory in the city and will devote his time to his ranch and his mail order dental work.

Judge J. T. Shelton bought a new Ford of the O. C. Lane agency Saturday evening and drove it to San Diego Sunday, where they are spending a few days at the exposition.

O. C. Lane delivered a Ford touring car to Mrs. E. J. Robbins Wednesday of this week.

A. M. Thompson, late of Hotel Virginia, Long Beach, is the new barber at Minert's barber shop.

J. L. Smith and family and Alvin Gundred spent Sunday on a fishing trip at Santa Monica and at Venice.

There will be a young people's benefit dance at the I. O. O. F. hall on Saturday evening, October 16.

Mr. F. G. Spaulding was the victim of a rather peculiar disturbance last Monday evening. He returned from the city on the 7:15 car and just after he had alighted at the Glendale Gardens crossing two armed men covered him with their guns and asked him to throw up his hands. Not complying with their demands quick enough one of the highwaymen fired at him. Mr. Spaulding at once dropped to the ground. Thinking they had shot him the robbers fled toward Burbank, whereupon Spaulding made for Brand's pumping station, where he phoned for Marshal Greenwood, who quickly responded on his motorcycle. He quickly started in pursuit of the would-be robbers and spied one of them, ordered him to stop and fired at the fugitive, who finally escaped in the fog and darkness.

TROPICO

Sunday's game of ball between the Tropico team and the Commerce promises to be a warmly contested one. The Commerce team beat the team of Pomona last Sunday, and now think they are going to beat our boys next Sunday. As our team is a very strong one the Commerce boys will have to look to their laurels.

The game broke last Sunday with an even score between the Tropico and the Bonnie Brae teams. All who desire to witness a good interesting game should attend Sunday's game, which will be played on the base ball diamond of the municipal playground.

E. J. Morgan, of El Centro, a former resident of Tropico, is spending a few days here, and in Glendale, on business. While in Tropico Mr. Morgan is the guest of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Collins of North Central avenue.

Fifteen of Tropico's musicians signed up last evening at a called meeting held at K. of P. hall, to organize a brass band for this city. A band master will be procured and the rehearsals begin at once.

It is urged that all men and boys who desire becoming members of the Tropico brass band will attend the next rehearsal and assist in the permanent organization of the band.

Mrs. E. U. Bacon, chairman of the Municipal Playground Committee, announces that Saturday, October 9, will be observed as pencil day and a number of the children of Tropico have volunteered to sell pencils for the benefit of the playground. If every man, woman and child would each buy just one pencil Saturday the playground fund would be greatly increased.

All parties interested are hereby required to file in writing their objections, if any they have, to the confirmation of said assessment by the Board of Trustees with the said Clerk of the Board, within thirty (30) days after the said date of the first publication of this notice, to-wit, on or before November 5, 1915. LA CRESCENTA

The many neighbors and friends of Mr. Wise gave him a surprise Friday night which was in the nature of a house warming. Over fifty guests attended, entertaining themselves and host with games, after which refreshments were served.

Mrs. V. B. Claffin entertained the Riding Club and friends with a venison dinner at her residence on Prospect Avenue. There were present Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Nettleton, Mr. Nettleton's mother, Mrs. Haggett, Miss May Andrea and her friend Miss Black of Pasadena, Ted Hopping, Louis Scherb, Henry Claffin and Miss Gwendolen Claffin. A most enjoyable evening was spent.

After two week's vacation the surveyors are back at work getting Michigan Avenue in shape for the contractors to put in the state highway.

Mrs. Miller is spending several days this week with friends in Hollywood. Miss Gwendolen Claffin entered the Girls' Collegiate school in Los Angeles Monday. The school is located at Adams and Hoover streets. Miss Claffin is taking up a course in home economics.

The La Crescenta Improvement association held a meeting at the school house last Friday evening, at which time the matter of street lighting was discussed. It was the opinion of those present that the rates for lighting at the present time would be exorbitant, and the plan for a system being installed was carried over for some future time. However, it is hoped that this time is not far distant, for in the minds of many lights would add greatly to the attractiveness of the town as a resort.

George Pardee of Los Angeles has had construction started on his residence on Los Angeles Avenue. Mr. Pardee recently purchased the five-acre tract on which the new structure is being built and will improve the same as a country home. Mr. Pardee is in business in Los Angeles.

D. L. Wetherbee and wife, of Los Angeles, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. Wetherbee's parents on the latter's ranch here. Saturday was made a pleasurable day by the young couple by a hike up into the mountains.

W. H. Hall, who has resided here for nearly a year, has removed to Pasadena, where he has gone into business.

Mrs. David Cochrane of Rosedale Avenue is visiting in Los Angeles this week.

Mr. Foy, one of the older residents of this section, is adding a room to his cozy home.

At the Fairmount

Those registered during the past week at the Fairmount Hotel are: Mrs. Barnard, Mrs. Mary Blinn, Miss Ruby Dessery and Miss Lulu M. Blinn, all of Los Angeles. Incidentally, weekend parties from Los Angeles and Pasadena have made reservations for rooms and cottages as far in advance as Thanksgiving week at this local resort. This speaks well for the success of the Fairmount.

La Crescenta Man Ingenious

Spraying is the one great job about the care of a small plot of oranges. Further than being troublesome, it means a couple of days of good hard work for the same number of acres.

But genius was on the job when F. A. Hanger of the Fairmount hotel set about to spray his two-acre grove. A water tank, which had been in discard for domestic purposes since the establishment of the water system in La Crescenta, was on top of the hotel building and used for fire protection. Mr. Hanger dumped the "dope" for the spraying in the tank and fastened the spraying hose onto the pipe that comes over the roof to the ground. Mr. Hanger and hired man then started to spray the trees and in a few hours the job was done.

WIFE SPEAKS FOR VOTE

New York state's "first lady" today personally entered the campaign for November "votes for women." The villagers of Voorheesville, a local suburb, heard Mrs. Charles Whitman's maiden speech in behalf of "the cause." Mrs. Raymond Brown, president of the New York state woman suffrage association, who is a guest of the governor's wife at the executive mansion, was another speaker. Mrs. Whitman is expected to make several equal suffrage speeches in the capital district before the November elections. The official Governor Whitman is "strictly neutral," being neither for nor against "the cause." The plain Mr. Whitman, however, endorses the "votes for women" movement and Mrs. Whitman's part in it.

CITIZEN SOLDIERS WILL WALK

Sufficiently hardened by almost a month of hard drilling, the business men's "rookies" at the citizen-soldier camp at Fort Sheridan, Ill., today began hiking in earnest. Col. Nicholson has arranged a five day march for the "soldiers" and all hands are eager for this feature. To-day only a short hike was on the program. The men have been seeing real service—that is, minus the bullets and cannon shells—during the past few days.

POSTER CONTEST CLOSES

What was probably the greatest contest in poster art ever held in this country closed at Newark, N. J., yesterday. The committee of one hundred, which has been arranging the celebration of the city's two hundred and fiftieth anniversary in 1916 offered prizes of $1000 and $500 for the most meritorious designs. A display of them will be a feature of the exposition and pageant which will mark the anniversary.

LIQUOR LAW HITS CLUBS

Evasion of the Evans Package Liquor law, which has nipped the locker system, is puzzling social club members of Tampa, Fla. Recently they held an "evasion" meeting for a joint conference and invited the sheriff. The sheriff attended and assured the Elks' Yacht County and foreign clubs' members that he would promptly arrest them if they violated the law. They are still trying to figure out how to do it without being arrested.

DAUGHTERS OF CONFEDERACY MEET

The annual three-day convention of Missouri Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, began at Warrensburg, Mo., today, with two presidential tickets in the field, Mrs. Thomas Wood Parry of Kansas City and Mrs. Charles Breckenridge Faris of Jefferson City, wife of a supreme court justice, are the rival candidates.
